6. Finding a Mentor

- 6.1. To provide the best possible Mentoring experience, MfW provide advice and guidance on the Website on how to select of a Mentor and how to get the most out of a Mentoring relationship.
- 6.2. Members are expected to watch the “Introduction to Mentoring” Webinar which can be found on the menu area of our membership system. It provides introductory guidance on Mentoring and being Mentored.
- 6.3. Members have access to a pool of Mentors, which can be searched for based on sector and skill. From this selection of Mentors, members will be able to view more detailed information about each Mentor.
- 6.4. It is essential that all members keep their profile information up to date, including the current “Mentoring Need”. Members must provide enough personal detail in their profile to give potential mentees and Mentors some insight into their personality to aid the matching process. An example of the profile page is shown in appendix 1
- 6.5. A member may select up to three Mentors for an initial engagement.
- 6.6. Emails will be sent to the selected Mentors and, subject to availability they will contact the mentee to arrange a free 15-minute conversation, known as the “Short Meeting”.
- 6.7. Should none of the selected Mentors be appropriate, the member may reject all three and start the process again.
- 6.8. On rejection of a Mentor, feedback is required as to why the Mentor was considered unsuitable.
- 6.9. Objective two-way feedback is an essential part of the process in every relationship, to aid both parties in their future Mentoring relationships. Feedback will be monitored by MfW to ensure service quality, improvements, and development.
- 6.10. The use of inappropriate and/or abusive language in feedback will not be tolerated and could lead to termination of membership and forfeiture of Subscription.
- 6.11. Feedback Data is confidential and not available to other members.
- 6.12. Once a member has chosen a Mentor, they will deselect the other potential Mentors, providing appropriate feedback as per 6.8.
- 6.13. Upon selection of the chosen Mentor, a start date must be entered and the fee for three sessions must be paid. Mentoring fees are outlined on the Website, the fee for each Mentor is held on their individual profile.

Mentors for Women Ltd Terms and Conditions of Service

7. Mentoring Fees

- 7.1. Mentoring fees are payable in advance for three Mentoring sessions.
- 7.2. Each Mentor has a fee rate agreed based on their qualifications and experience.
- 7.3. Mentoring fees are held in a MfW client account and paid to the Mentor upon completion of each session.
- 7.4. The member must keep a record of meetings and record completion in the MfW membership system, to ensure the Mentor is efficiently remunerated.
- 7.5. MfW takes a percentage of the fee for administration.
- 7.6. Where a Mentor does not wish to be paid for their services, their proportion of the fee are transferred to the Foundation. See 12.4
- 7.7. Corporate and SME organisations, (“Organisations”), pay an average fee rate, for
- 7.8. three sessions per member per annum in advance.
- 7.9. Corporate and SME members are not personally required to pay for Mentoring services, as those fees are included in the set-up costs for their own Organisation.
- 7.10. Organisations will meet quarterly with their MfW Account Manager, to review the quarterly report on sessions and fees. Where fees exceed those paid, due to the averaging of Mentors fees, an additional invoice for the balance will be raised. Any excess of fees paid will be carried forward to the next quarter.
- 7.11. Mentoring Fees are inclusive of VAT at the going rate in the UK.

8. Mentoring Relationships

- 8.1. It is assumed that most meetings will take place over the Internet, by means most appropriate to both parties, agreed at the outset and documented in the contract.
- 8.2. Mentors will take appropriate action to ensure that meetings are held in a confidential environment where they take place over the Internet. Advice and Guidance is available on the Website.
- 8.3. Physical meetings may take place, if both parties agree, but each party will be responsible for their own travel costs and disbursements.
- 8.4. Mentor and mentee will agree a contract for their relationship based on the example contract “MfW_Mentoring_Contract.doc” held on the Website under Membership/Documents. The Mentoring contract shall be agreed before the first paid for Mentoring session.
- 8.5. The Mentor and mentee should action an “exchange of contract” prior to the initial Short Meeting, any changes required should be stated and considered prior to the Short Meeting, in order to be able to agree them quickly at that meeting.
- 8.6. Mentees entering a Mentoring relationship should consider and document clear SMART objectives for the Mentoring (Specific, Measurable, Actionable, Relevant, Time-bound). The objectives must be agreed with the Mentor, and regularly reviewed. The objectives and the outcome of the objectives must be documented in the MfW membership system.
- 8.7. Mentors will have the ability to view the record of the relationship as kept by the Mentee. Should the Mentor believe that it is not a true representation of the relationship and the process they must report the matter to their Mentor Manager.

Terms and Conditions of Service

9. Confidentiality

- 9.1. Both parties in a Mentoring relationship shall respect the confidentiality of the other party. No additional information about the parties or details/content of the Mentoring meeting may be stored electronically anywhere or shared with anyone.
- 9.2. All meetings must be logged in the MfW application, together with objectives and the outcome of those objectives.

10. Becoming a Mentor

- 10.1. Members may apply to become a Mentor, through the member certification process, which can be found on the “Apply to be a Mentor” tab of “My Account”.
- 10.2. Prospective Mentors must watch the two level 1 webinars” on the MfW membership System under Training. There is a short questionnaire for each webinar which must be completed, and the pass mark attained.
- 10.3. Prospective Mentors must complete their details on the “Apply to be a Mentor” tab, and upload a CV, no more than 2 pages long in PDF form.
- 10.4. Prospective Mentors must apply personally for DBS if they wish to Mentor anyone considered to be vulnerable. They must upload a copy of their DBS certification to the Website. Details of how to apply are on the Website under Becoming a Mentor
- 10.5. Prospective Mentors may choose to take out their own professional indemnity insurance.
- 10.6. Once documentation and training are complete, Prospective Mentors will have a one-to-one meeting with a Mentor Manager, to discuss their experience and agree an hourly rate, and a start date.
- 10.7. Mentors may put their profile “on hold” anytime, should they not wish to have any enquiries.
- 10.8. From time-to-time MfW provides Mentors with the feedback from potential mentees. MfW will work with Mentors to improve their profile and recommend strategies to improve their chances of being selected.
- 10.9. MfW Mentors may not approach any member, individual or organisation attached, affiliated or in contact with MfW, with a view to Mentoring them privately.
- 10.10. MfW recognises that some members may already work for alternative or have their own Mentoring organisations. MfW may take legal action against members found to be poaching or attempting to poach contacts to compete for business.
- 10.11. Any Mentor found in breach of MfW Terms and Conditions may have their membership terminated forthwith and forfeit their Subscriptions
- 10.12. Should a member approach a Mentor directly with a view to beginning or continuing a Mentoring relationship privately, the Mentor must refuse. Should both parties contract separately then their membership will be terminated, without notice and forfeiting their Subscriptions.
